Special Life Network

December 2, 2013

Dear Ed,

Thank you for being a valuable part of our SPECIAL LIFE® Community.

Our purpose is to help integrate children, teens and adults into the community by increasing awareness, providing education & training and networking the resources within a community. We serve the entire community with no exclusions.

Below are some events and activities that might be of interest. We wish you and your family a safe and wonderful holiday season!

[Note: Microsoft recently released Internet Explorer 11.0 which some vendors like Constant Contacts are finding incompatible with their current system. If you cannot open a link below, it could be a result of the new Internet Explorer 11.0 recently introduced. The solution is to open the link with another browser like Google Chrome or Firefox, or simply make one of these your default browser. All information below can be found at www.speciallife.org]
